Greeting unto the populace of the mighty Outlands,

It is hard to put into words what a whirlwind this last month has been. We went to Unser Hafen and enjoyed a magnificent feast at their Winter Revel. We then went even further north and enjoyed the hospitality of Windkeep at their Hunter's Feast. While we found it necessary to leave early due to weather (we are still getting used to snow), we did enjoy a fabulous day of games and merriment just as promised. That same weekend we went to a WAR practice hosted by Dragonsspine and had the pleasure of meeting several new fighters preparing for WAR, keep it up we need all the able bodied warriors we can get.

The following weekend we went to Caer Galen's Midwinter. We had a wonderful time. It is always fun to try to guess what that Barony holds in store for anyone attending their Midwinter, and it was not disappointing to say the least.

We also attended al-Barran's Midwinter and WAR Practice. Where once again we enjoyed the amazing hospitality of one of our Baronies. We deeply appreciate the hard work of everyone and know that we are truly blessed to be Crown to such an outstanding Kingdom.

Don't forget, WAR is right around the corner. Please work on scenarios at your local fighter practices. If you find something that works, share it with the other groups. To all of our populace, you are the finest the Society has to offer and we know you will make us proud at WAR. Whether it is in combat, A & S entries, seige cooking, or archery we know you will make us proud and The Outlands Proud.

Kingdom Seneschal

Unto the Populace of the Kingdom of the Outlands does Master Duncan Alastair MacRae send forth greetings.

I hope that the start of a new Gregorian year finds each and everyone of you healthy and filled with plans for Estrella War. I want to encourage all who can attend this wonderful event to do so. This year we are looking to be sorely outnumbered so I urge everyone to attend who can.

The team for the Seneschal's office is in place, I am excited that I have so much experience and knowledge backing me up.
Deputy in charge of Baronies - Mistress Monika von Zell is transitioning the office to Master Ryan de Caergybi.
Deputy in charge of Shires - Mistress Bennet Murray is transitioning the office to THL Mariah Abramsdotter.
Deputy in charge of Cantons/Colleges - I have combined the Deputy for these positions. THL Nikolaous Demetriou ho Toxotes is be taking on this position.
Deputy for Media Relations - Mistress Meenakshi has agreed to take this and build this position. Hospitalers will still interface with local media when it comes to events etc. All Media Contacts need to be reported to Mistress Meenakshi and any regional, national, or potentially harmful media contacts need to be coordinated with her so that she or the Society officer can be involved if necessary.
Kingdom Event coordinator - Lady EllaAnne de Kari has agreed to take on this task. I would like to encourage the smaller groups to look at Kingdom events. Nahrun just did a great job with Coronation.
Mistress Richenza le Wydu will continue as the Waiver Secretary. Make sure that waivers are being forwarded to her.

During the next few months I would like to find someone that is interested in the Emergency Deputy Position. This position acts as my backup if for some reason I cannot continue.

The website is being updated with contact information for myself and the deputies, if you need more than a email address you will need to register and login to the outlands.org website for that information.

Yours in Service,
Duncan Alastair MacRae, OP

Earl Marshal

Greetings!
War is upon us! Please make sure that your travel and camping arrangements are almost finalized. The long trip by itself can make people grumpy and grumpy people on the field lead to hot tempers.

I am asking that each and every marshal pick one fight that they will marshal. In years past, this arrangement has worked well for the Outlands. We must keep the heavy and light fields safe and as organized as possible.

Now is the month to repad your helm and thrusting points. Be legal and safe.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber, Kingdom Minister of Children send greetings.

The new November issue of a free on-line youth newsletter full of information and ideas for our youth is available now at http://www.freewebtown.com/JamesandGwen/Lib_Nov_2007.pdf. I highly recommend Libellus again to you. The newsletter's website at http://www.freewebtown.com/JamesandGwen/libellus.htm also has 15 back issues available for downloading. Each issue has up to 16 pages of great ideas and activities for learning more about the SCA and having fun. That's close to 250 pages of ideas for our youth. Please support Libellus this month by sending them articles, ideas, activities, etc. for future newsletters to the editor, Gwen, at gpengrych@gmail.com. Please also spread the word in your local groups via your group's discussion lists and newsletters about this valuable resource for our youth, parents and youth volunteers.

Estrella War will soon be here. There will be many, many youth activities planned for all age levels, but again they need volunteer help. Last year, children had to sit outside on the grass waiting to play until one more adult could be found so that they could enter the tent, because of our two adult rule. If you have a youth going to Estrella or you just enjoy helping with our youth, we hope you will volunteer some hours to support these learning and fun opportunities. To volunteer please contact Lady Ilora (Laura Hopf), the Youth Center Coordinator, at lhopf32@msn.com or Lady Elizabeth (Mindy Clark) at 480-250-4926 or mecpooh@mchsi.com.

There will be a Toddler Area, a Teen Center, a Children's Project Area, Arts and Sciences and Youth Challenges. The Youth Area gives an opportunity to not just entertain the future of our many splendid Kingdoms, but also educate our children on what the "Dream" we share, is truly about. It's a place where our youth and their parents can meet, share information and learn new skills, our teens can hang out in safety and still have their space, and where children and grown-ups alike can just have fun and enjoy being at war. Any youth wishing to participate in Youth Combat scenarios at Atenveldt, will need to follow the Atenveldt Youth Weapons Standards (Thursday-Saturday) and the Caid Youth Weapons Standards (Sunday), available from their Kingdom websites. More information is available at http://www.estrellawar.org/

In service,
Lady Jayne Barber

Rapier Marshal

Greetings onto the Rapier fighters of the Outlands,

As we enter the new year I hope this missive finds all of you well. War is coming and the deadline for authorization is also approaching on Jan. 15. If you want to fight in the melees at war you must have your authorization done by this time. I would also call your attention to the war practices happening all over the kingdom in the coming month.

I would also like to announce that Don Ulrich will be taking over as KRM at Grand Outlandish.

In Service,
Christian

Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings,

I hope everyone's holidays were happy, joyous and safe travels were had by all. The winter months brings our events indoors and a great time for artisans to show their works. I encourage those hosting events to provide an opportunity for your area artisans to display their works or teach their trade, so all may enjoy their riches.

Estrella War is coming quickly upon us, it feels like yesterday, but alas, it is here again. Those entering 2008 Estrella A&S competition must be registered by January 12th. See the Estrella War web site for information, www.estrellawar.org; forms are under the War Treaty, A&S Competition. Categories are, Tabletop Games, Embroidery in the Style of Opus Anglicanum and External Footwear. Also, please review the rules. The entrant does not have to be at the event, but entries must be checked in at 9:30 am to be eligible. Those that are not able to attend, but have an entry, I am available to assist you in the delivery of your item. Please contact me by email or phone to make arrangements.

Kingdom A&S Competition is approaching as well. It is to be held on April 12-13, 2008 weekend. Since the Kingdom A&S Competition of 2007 was held in the south, it is desired to be held in the north for 2008 and site bids are being accepted at this time. Further information yet to come.

Thank you all for assisting with commentary for the Kingdom A&S Competition, there were a lot of great ideas and comments. I have decided to make few changes over the next few years. Listed below are some changes for the 2008 competition.

1. All of the sub-categories listed under the categories, will be titled as categories. There will be a few categories add, but have not yet been confirmed.
2. There will be a 1st and 2nd place named in each category where applicable.
3. All Categories listed will become titled as Divisions. Divisions are listed as: Visual Art, Fiber Art, Domestic Arts and Sciences, Performing Arts, Letters and Functional Art.
4. A Champion for each Division will be announced. All 1st place winners out of each category will vie for the Division Champion based on the individual item.
5. An Overall A&S Champion will still be announced and the current rules will apply.
6. Research Papers category only. Research Papers will be physically due to me by the pre-registration deadline.
7. Entries must be on site and checked in by 9:30 am on the day of the event. Entry must be ready to be judged by 10 am.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

In service,

The Copyright Deputy should either be a legal professional or someone with experience in the publishing industry, journalism, or academia concerning copyright questions. Basic familiarity with copyright law outside the United States (particularly Canada and the European Union) would also be an asset. Other qualifications for the position include excellent written and oral communication skills and the ability to explain copyright policy and law to laymen. Familiarity with SCA publications is also required.

The Copyright Deputy reports to the Society Chronicler and is required to report quarterly, as well as to be available via the Internet to answer questions.

Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036-0789, or electronically to resumes@sca.org with a copy to chronicler@sca.org. Resumes must be received by March 15, 2008.

Caerthe's 12th Night
15th Century France

A time of many changes for France and despite wars and plague, there is happiness! The latter part of the 15th century The Lady and the Unicorn tapestries were commissioned by the La Viste family to depict the five senses and Love. This year, Caerthe's 12th night will embody elements that will tantalize your 5 senses and lets not forget Love. Come and be prepared to See, Hear, Touch and Taste. Of course "A mon seul desir" (meaning; "to my only desire"), will play an important part in the day.

Mistress Mirianna and Mistress Gabrielle are working on creating the six tapestries, which will hang in the hall. There will still be room for your banners, so please bring them along.

Come one and all to the Grand Ball of Dragonsspine! This February 2nd marks the return of Candlemas to The Outlands' winter schedule once more. This year's event will be held in the Tudor inspired Church. The hall provides ample opportunity for one and all to view what always promises to be one of the most splendid Court's of the season.

February 2 is "Candlemas" in many churches and is the day for observing the ritual purification of Mary forty days after the birth of Jesus. The day has pagan roots and was a Christian adaptation of the older practices for this midwinter festivity as it marks the midway point between Winter Solstice and the Spring Equinox from which we get our "Groundhog Day." Since the presentation was also the purification of Mary, the church developed ritual practices known as the "Churching of Women" or "Thanksgiving of Women after Childbirth." In pagan religions, this day would be marked with many celebratory fires and feasts of thanks for reaching this far into winter and the coming spring.

With the return of Candlemas, the return of the Consort's Tournament will be marked as well. This Tournament will infuse the areas of fighting as well as Arts and Sciences between its participants. The tournament will comprise a teaming of two individuals who earn points for both their showings on the field and on paper for their A and S entries. Though one may win the list field, an equal showing will be required in the A and S to achieve victory in this Tournament. More details to follow.

As always with the feasting season, Dragonsspine knows how to put its best foot forward with its award winning and always raved about feasts. This year, Master Eric Edmundsson returns to the Kitchen to bring about mouth-watering sensations to your palates. Master Eric is one of the founding members of our Cook's Guild and to have the chance to eat his food is always an anticipated occasion, do not miss it! There will be limited seating for this engagement and it promises to disappear fast. There are only 58 feasts to be sold and they must be pre-paid. Please contact Lady Angel at scribe@dragonsspine.org to handle your reservation.

Once again this year's Candlemas will be host to both classes and fighting. A complete listing of classes and fighting schedules and tournaments will be listed soon so please make note to keep watch. All fighting will be held within easy walking distance at Colorado College.

Directions to site: Access to this event is extremely easy and convenient to be reached from the King's highway (I-25). Please take the Kings Highway(I-25) to the Uintah street exit. Head East to Cascade and take a right. You will pass Colorado College and take a left onto Dale Street. The Church is on the corner of Dale and Tejon.

As the theme with this year's Candlemas is the Grand Ball, expect Court to entertain this winter season's finest garments. Come and be part of the pomp and circumstance with showing your finest and you will be duly noticed. So come and join us on the Feast Day of St. Catherine, as always, you will not be disappointed.

Do you know any of the nominees on this list?
Would you or someone you know make a good Director?
Tell us about them!

The Board seeks input from the membership concerning any of the individuals on the list below. Your commentary is very much needed and gratefully received. In addition, new nominees are always needed and strongly encouraged. Any member may nominate any member, including themselves, for the Board. If you know someone who you think would make a good Board member, please nominate them. Remember that all information in these letters is kept completely confidential, and no one elected to the Board ever sees commentary about themselves.

Please send all comments and nominations to Gabrielle Underwood, Board Recruiting Ombudsman, 209 Cochrane St. Apt 1. Port Perry, Ontario (Canada) L9L 1L6 or e-mail recruiting@sca.org. Please include your name and address in any correspondence sent concerning these matters, and remember to include the name and address of anyone you nominate for the Board so that we may contact them. You will receive a response indicating that we received your correspondence - if you don't hear back from us promptly, we did not get your missive.
